POETRY.

BANQUET OF THE FLOWERS.

Young Bacchus invited his favorite flowers
In the valley of song to enjoy a few hours;
Above in a thousand wild cups curl'd the vine,
And beneath sat gay Bacchus, the young god of wine.

He raised his full goblet, and bowed to the Rose,
Be our first toast "Dear Beauty," the charm of life's woes;
And the Rose bent in blushes, and sipp'd in her turn,
Till the bloom of her cheek like the nectar did burn.

The stars one by one in the dim heavens set—
Still the vine flowed as sweet as the first hour they met;
And the Sun-flower declared that the faint glance of day
Was the moon's silver herald to lure them to stay!

The poppy half drowsily lifted his head,
And the Lily droop'd pale o'er her own leafy bed;
But the life of the feast was the Tulip, whose bowl
Was the widest, the fullest, and best of the whole!

Oh! call you this earth—it is life for the skies!
'Twixt the blush of the Rose and the Violet's blue eyes:
Who'd not linger for ever beneath the green vine,
And bathe his free spirit in Bacchus's wine!

The banquet is over; but, oh! may we find
Our hearts like the bright flowers the vine hath entwin'd:
May the spirit of Friendship still raise up the shrine
To Bacchus, gay Bacchus, the young god of wine!

TWO EMOTIONS—FROM THE FRENCH.

It was about sixteen years since that old General—— had withdrawn himself from the world, its pleasures and the sphere of politics. A soldier from the early days of the empire, his manner of life was changed, and his time given up to the exercise of a double occupation. He consoled himself as well as he could with the gone-by dream of glory, and superintended with great diligence the studies of his niece, who, with himself occupied a modest cottage, washed by the pure waters of the Loire, a few miles below Amboise. To his title of preceptor the old general added the still more endearing one of 'comforter.' His niece was of that age when the heart vibrates with the softest emotions and the gentlest sympathies—in brief, she loved. A union was about to take place which, for its fulfilment, awaited the return of a young officer of the army then in Algiers. One evening, "'twas on the edge of summer," a barque driven by the wind and current, laden with young people of both sexes, "gentle dames and gallant squires," was proceeding in the direction of Amboise. The echo of the river repeated the sounds of the light guitar, and the accents of several musical voices were heard from its banks. The young troop were singing the songs of the Loire, compositions no less applicable to the time and place than romantic, and well suiting the occasion.

"Let's take this world as some wild scene,
Through which in frail but buoyant boat,
With skies now rude and now serene,
Together thou and I must float."

The old gentlemen saw little save the wreath of blue smoke which was slowly undulating from the bowl of a Turkish pipe, "the charmer of an idle hour;" but his fair niece was lost in a reverie. The gay party on board had just finished a beautiful canzonette, entitled "Espoir et Retour," and the young maiden, whose thoughts, light as the air which fanned her countenance, had flown on wings of love "where Afric's golden rivers flow," leaving behind a sentimental langor not to be controlled, and two big round tears fell almost unconsciously on the hand of the general. "Well, my dear niece," said the veteran, reposing his pipe on the table, "are you so weak that a song should affect and distress you?" and the old man laughed loud and long, adding withal some quaint but good humored irony to his remarks. A few moments of silence ensued, and now another boat glides by. It was freighted by the inhabitants and some of the dwellers on the banks of the river. Immediately was heard sounds of rough music, like the clang of arms loud and deafening; while the air gave back the crash of instruments that seemed to rend the firmament, harsh and discordant "as the din of war." Just then a moonbeam played upon the river boat, and the tri-color flag is seen reflected on the blue surface of the water; and now two masculine voices are heard joining the clashing cymbals, and the clarion's trump echoing to the skies the national air,

"Allons, enfans de la patrie!"

"Uncle, what is the matter? You shed tears—I feel them hot and burning! How is this? Can a song so disturb you, dear uncle?" said the betrothed damsel, ironically. "It is not a song," replied the old general, "it is the freeman's cry—the people's voice—the national hymn. Weep, weep tears of joy, my child. The romance 'Du Retour' is worthy of our best sympathies—the women will understand thy appeal, and the old veterans will comprehend mine" In the first boat was the friend and lover returned triumphant from Algiers: in the second the citizens had come to the general, seeking in him a chief pledged to maintain the character and extend far and wide the renown of the old soldiers of La Loire.

BOSTON MORNING POST.

FRIDAY, JULY 8, 1836.

From the Plymouth County Republican.

SCITUATE CELEBRATION.

The celebration of the anniversary of our National Independence, at Scituate, on Monday last, passed off in fine style. There was a large assemblage of people, who seemed to enjoy the festivities in a high degree.—The proceedings were conducted with spirit and animation, and a general good feeling prevailed in an especial manner throughout the day. Indeed, we do not recollect an instance, on an occasion like this, where such good order prevailed among all the classes present, as on Monday last at Scituate.

The oration by Mr Rantoul, was a masterly production, and deserving of all praise. It was listened to by an immense audience, half of whom could not obtain seats, and many were unable to get into the meeting house. We are totally unable to give a perfect sketch of the oration, and therefore shall not attempt it. A copy has been requested for publication, and we hope that the public will be gratified by a perusal of this valuable production.

The procession was formed at 10 o'clock, headed by Hon. Samuel A Turner, Chairman of the Committee of Arrangements, and conducted by Col. G. W. Young, Chief Marshal, who was assisted by Benj. Jacobs, Jr. and Caleb W. Prouty, as aids, and six assistants. The services at the church were, 1st a Hymn; 2d Prayer, by Rev. B. Whittemore, of Plymouth, who addressed the Throne of Grace in a most able and fervent manner; 3d Hymn; 4th Reading of the Declaration of Independence, by Perez Simmons, Esq; 5th Oration, by Robert Rantoul, Jr Esq; 6th Anthem. A procession was then formed and proceeded to the public house, where a dinner was provided under an arbor.—Hon. John B. Turner presided at the table, assisted by a large number of Vice Presidents. About 150 persons partook of the dinner. After the cloth was removed, a large number of toasts were announced by Wm. M. Jackson, Esq. and Col. G. W. Young, Toast Masters, and received with high glee by the company. We have only room this week for the regular toasts. We shall give the volunteers in our next.

REGULAR TOASTS.

1. American Independence.—Achieved by the blood of martyrs—may it survive the wreck of ages.
2. The President of the United States.—His name his highest eulogy.
3. The memory of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence.—By patriotism and love of Independence they laid the corner stone of our National Edifice, which was cemented by the blood and finished by the treasure of our fathers—let us keep the building in good repair, that it may stand until the latest generations.
4. Sound Democracy.—Laid down by Jefferson and supported by Jackson—the election of Van Buren will guarantee its continuance.
5. Massachusetts.—Having lost by her apostacy, her influence in the National Councils, may our next anniversary celebrate the Prodigal's return.
6. The Orator of the Day.—Democrats will not forget the people's friend, nor the fearless and successful enemy of Ten Million Monsters.

When the above toast was announced, Mr. R. arose and said in substance, that although he had already taxed the patience of his hearers, he felt it his duty to say something in regard to the ten million bank, petitioned for during the session of our last Legislature and rejected by that body. Although the bank had been rejected by one Legislature, the project of such a bank was by no means given up by its movers, the whig aristocracy of Boston. He said that the principal movers of this bank were the supporters of the U. S. Bank before that institution received its death wound; that it was one link of a great chain, planned and devised by the whig aristocracy throughout the Union, one of which was to be in every State; that Louisiana, Pennsylvania, and some other States had already obtained theirs; and that it was the object to control the government of the country by means of these monied monopolies, &c. &c. He closed with the following sentiment:

Andrew Jackson—In the field a Washington—in the cabinet a Jefferson—the restorer of the Constitution.

7. The freedom of speech and of the press—Dear as are our lives, any infringement upon these we will resist unto death, even though it be suggested by a Chief Magistrate of this commonwealth.
8. Our representative in Congress—The man of the Nation, not of party.
9. The Militia—The only safeguard to republican governments. When rendered unpopular by popular frenzy, a standing army will supply its place and rivit the chains of despotism.
10. Antimasonry—A branch torn from the Tree of Democracy—We hail its reunion with the parent stock.
11. The Whigs of '76 and the Whigs of '36—The former a band of patriots; the latter—don't know what to call 'em.
12. The Clergy—We venerate the man whose heart is warm, whose hands are pure, whose doctrine and whose life coincident, exhibit lucid proofs that he is honest in the sacred cause.
13. The American Fair—May they never present arms to the enemies of our country.

☞ We neglected to say above that the escort duties were performed by the Abington Artillery, who exhibited a fine soldierlike appearance, and were commanded by skilful and efficient officers.

A Desideratum.—The editor of the Bangor Courier is eloquent in praise of a new washing and wringing machine, invented by a Mr Ray, of that city, by the aid of which a dirty sheet was washed and wrung out, (as well or better than a woman could do with her hands,) in one quarter of a minute, in the presence of the editor aforesaid, who further declares that the "smallest articles can also be washed in the machine, without injury to buttons or hooks and eyes." We have some doubt about the truth of this latter assertion, and in order to test it, we mean to send down a whig editor to be passed through the machine, say the "Lieut. (not yet commissioned) of the Berry street Rangers." If the machine will cleanse him of his political sins, it will prove the truth of the Bangor editor's assertions, and we should advise him to jump into the hopper next. It will be "a day of small things" when they are both scoured.

The New Bedford Gazette complains that the Oration delivered before the professed no-party celebration in that place, on the 4th, by Wendell Phillips, of this city, was "a pretty good whig speech," in the course of which the orator lauded the "Common Law," and most ungraciously slurred the "modern democracy." Our friends should have guarded against subjecting themselves to such treatment, by having a celebration of their own. These no-party celebrations, like no party newspapers, are always federal gull-traps.

What a pity!—The Atlas does not seem to be pleased with the Democratic Celebration at Faneuil Hall, on the Fourth. That paper has a great many bitter pills to swallow, all prescribed by the people, and that too without consulting the squeamishness of whig stomachs. It can't be helped, as we see.

Momentous!—The New Bedford Mercury does not think the President's scruples in relation to the deposite bill were constitutional.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

By the packet ship North America, Captain Dixey, at New York, London papers to May 31st, and Liverpool to the 1st of June, both inclusive, have been received.

The British Parliament had resumed its sittings, after a recess of a few days. Lord Melbourne, however, had not yet made his appearance in the Lords since the late "untoward affair."

Mr. O'Connel attempted, on the 30th May, to introduce a petition from Dublin, against the return of Messrs. Hampton and Price, as members from the Irish capital, in the place of himself and his late colleague. It was opposed, however, by the Attorney General, whereupon Mr. O'Connell withdrew the petition.

The Duke of Gordon, Lord-Lieutenant of Aberdeenshire and Governor of Edinburgh Castle, died on the 28th of May: he was in the 68th year of his age.

Agitation is still the watchword in Ireland. O'Connel persists in his determination to bring forward his motion for the destruction of the house of Peers. The millions will go with him.

Paris papers are to the 30th; but they are alike destitute of news and of interest. The Chamber of Deputies was engaged in discussing the question of slavery in the French colonies.

European Congress.—A letter from Mentz states that preparations are making by Prince Metternich, for a great European Congress, to be held at Johannesburgh, in August or September, in which all the great powers are to be represented.

The Spanish Cortes have been dissolved by the Queen, chiefly in consequence of their voting, by a large majority, that the existing ministry did not enjoy their confidence.

Cordova, one of the Queen's Generals, has gained a victory over a considerable boyd of Carlists.

General Evans has remained inactive since the action of the 4th, awaiting some movement on the part of Cordova like that above indicated. The forces of General Evans amounted to 11,000. He was expecting reinforcements to the number of 4,000—so that he would resume operations at the head of 15,000 men. Cordova's force is computed at 50,000.

Greece.—Letters from Athens are to the 12th of April. The affairs of the kingdom were improving. The king of Bavaria had returned from his visit to his son, king Otho.

Portugal.—Advices from Lisbon are to the 23d of May inclusive. The internal affairs of the kingdom are in a satisfactory state. The members of the Cortes, who had left the capital, at the time of the prorogation, rather out of humor with the new ministry, are returning in better temper. The Queen has been assured by a lady that an interesting change has taken place in her situation; the lady making the first discovery, and giving the intimation, has been created a Dutchess.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET, JUNE 1.—During the week ending 27th ult. the supplies were light, and the market rallied; and though the common qualities were comparatively neglected and remained stationary in price, the middle and better qualities were in request, and advanced ¼ per lb, and the sales of all kinds amounted to 25,400 bales, of which speculators took 1500 bales—350 bales Sea Island at 19d to 32d per lb—40 stained do at 9d to 16d—7200 Upland at 9½ to 12d—5620 Mobile at 9¾d to 12½, Alabama and Tennessee at 7¾d to 10¼d—7700 New Orleans at 9½ to 13d. On the 27th ultimo there were in market of all kinds 159460 bales, of which 92,230 bales only were American.

Mr Williams, of Kentucky, was the member who was unanimously censured by the House of Representatives on Sunday morning. The House was in Committee of the Whole, Mr Sutherland in the chair, when Mr W., having been called to order by the Chair, and required to take his seat, refused to do so, called the Chair to order, and persisted in maintaining his standing position.—Mr Sutherland in consequence abdicated the Chair, which was resumed by the Speaker. After numerous attempts to adjust the matter, Mr Williams declining to make a satisfactory apology, a resolution was unanimously passed, the purport of which was, that Mr Williams, having refused to take his seat, when ordered to do so, and having contumaciously ordered the Chairman to take his seat, he therefore defied the power of the Chair, and of the House, for which he was justly liable to the censure of the House.

☞The following is, we believe, an old story, re-told—

Augusta, July 1.—A gentleman arrived yesterday in the Florida Line of Stages, reports that about 33 miles from Cambridge, on the west side of Flint River, a scouting party of 30 men came across a young lady by the name of Jones, who was shot in the breast. She stated that her family was attacked on Sunday morning last by about 300 Indians, who killed all (thirteen in number) except herself and her father who made his escape. When shot she feigned dead until the Indians had left, when she got up and saw the mangled bodies of her mother, brothers and sisters, lying on the ground unscalped.

We were shown yesterday a letter from the same quarter, dated the 12th instant, which stated that an express had just arrived with information that 2,000 Creeks had crossed Flint River, and were making for Florida, destroying every thing in their path, and murdering every one they came across—and that the people were very much alarmed. This was on the 12th of last month, and since that time we have heard no more about the Indians from that quarter. We mention this to put those at a distance on their guard.

A smart shower played the deuce with the New Yorkers on Monday, just after the commencement of the military review. The Commercial Advertiser says—

"It made sad work with the soldiers' plumes and white pantaloons, and with the silks, and flowers, and parti-coloured ribbons of the fair sex. In spite of our efforts to feel sorry for the poor damsels, who in sporting had ruined all their holyday finery, we could not but smile at the ludicrous appearance they presented, as in masses they scampered through the streets, beneath the peltings of the merciless shower—some wrapping their babies in the skirts of their frocks—some endeavouring to protect their hats and ribbons by reversing the order of their skirts, and bringing them over their heads like hoods—and others taking the tempest as it came—the dies oozing from their gay furbelows, and dripping down their milky drapery in streams "of green and yellow melancholy."

Shameful.—The Transcript gives the following statement of facts:—

"A gentlemen residing in Chestnut Street, returned from the south a fortnight since, sick with the small pox, and his attending physician has made no report of the case to the city authorities, to prevent his patient's being removed to Quarantine. He was told that it was his duty to do so, but replied that the "penalty was only a small fine, and he was willing to pay it." Thus has the sick man been permitted to live in his own house, in a populous neighbourhood, during the whole course of the infectious disease, without any notice having been given to the neighbors, that they might protect themselves and children from contagion. It is now reported that his wife has caught the disease.

There was quite a riot at the Five Points, N. York, on Tuesday night, in which several hundreds of the lowest classes were engaged. The Mayor, several Aldermen, Justice Bloodgood, and a large body of the city watch, succeeded in dispersing the rioters, but not until Aldermen Brady and several others were seriously injured.

---

The news from the Creek country is confirmatory of the reported surrender of a large body of Indians. A portion of Jim Henry's command have been taken prisoners. The Indians who have surrendered will, it is supposed, be sent immediately to the West, except five or six of the Chiefs, who will be detained until their punishment is determined on.

The New York Light Guards will breakfast at Concert Hall, this morning, with the Boston Light Infantry, by whom they will be escorted out of the city.

A keeper of wild animals was bitten through the flesh of his thigh, a few days since at Suffield, (Conn.) by a lion, unto whose cage he entered—he was dangerously wounded.

---

There was a severe gale on the Upper Lakes, on the 19th ult. The steamboat Delaware went ashore near Chicago, and was a total wreck—crew saved.

☞We have Charleston papers to Saturday evening, from which we have selected a few items of news.

FROM MEXICO AND TEXAS.

New Orleans papers of the 22d ult., contain some additional advices from Mexico and Texas. A letter dated on board the U. S. schooner Grampus, at sea, June 11, (written by Capt. Taylor, who made his escape from Tampico in an open boat, in the night, was taken on board of the Jefferson, and from thence transferred to the Grampus,) states that the Mexicans expect to take Texas by surprise. The Congress at Tampico had decreed that Government would not accede to any act or treaty made by Santa Anna during his imprisonment, and that every state in the republic should furnish forthwith one fourth of her forces, to be equipped and ordered to march as soon as possible to Matamoras.

The closing of the Mexican ports against the sailing of all merchant vessels, was understood as being particularly directed against the U. States. It is publicly declared at Tampico that all foreign houses shall be robbed, and the inhabitants butchered, as soon as it should be ascertained that Santa Anna had been shot. Warlike preparations are making in every direction, and it is current among the officers of the army, that seventeen thousand men were to march against Texas; some of which are on their march for their head quarters—Matamoras. Jose Maria Corro is President, and promises to sell the crucifixes from the churches to carry on the war, if means cannot be otherwise had.

Rumors were afloat at New Orleans, that two private armed English vessels were fitting out at Jamaica, to assist the Mexicans against Texas. It was not believed that England would openly take side with Mexico; but the British Minister had made a visit of condolence to the acting President of Mexico, on learning of the capture of the President chief. This circumstance was construed as giving color to the rumor.

The American schooner Watchman had been captured in the Bay of Copana by the Texans—she had been released, but her cargo, which was provisions for the Mexican army, was confiscated.

A gentleman who came passenger in the Good Hope, at New Orleans from Matamoras, reports that horrid and premeditated butchery had been committed by the Indians, at Fort Sterling, Robinson colony, Texas. A body of Capoes, Wacoes, and Sawatacants, amounting in all to about 400, appeared before the fort, in an orderly and seemingly quiet manner; but the people within suspected their intentions and undertook to make their escape, when the Indians throwing off all disguise, killed nearly all of them as they ventured out, and pursued the few that were fortunate enough to elude their grasp. After glutting themselves with blood, they ransacked the fort, carrying off every thing of value that met their eyes.

The following, from the New Orleans Bee is another version, in part, of the same story:—

The Indians had attacked the Texan settlements at the head waters of the Brassos, and committed several murders. General Green and Felix Houston had marched against them with 600 men—the effective force of Texas now in the field, is about 2000 men. General Rusk was at Goliad with 600 men; his advanced post extended to the Rio del Norte, and had quiet possession of the sea coast. Santa Anna was at Velasco, under the guard of a company sent by General Rusk, to take charge of him. No disturbance had happened among the volunteers, and every thing was quiet.

The New Orleans papers also contain a copy of the agreement between Santa Anna and the Texan Government, the provisions of which have been before published.

Presidential Appointments.—Andrew T. Judson, of Canterbury, (Conn.) has been appointed Judge of the U. S. District Court of that State, in the place of the late William Bristol, of New Haven, deceased. Mr Judson resigned his seat in the House of Representatives on Monday.

Mr Harris, of Tennessee, formerly Chief Clerk of the War Department, has been appointed Commissioner of Indian Affairs, vice Elbert Herring, Esq. appointed to be paymaster of the army.

A nephew of Major Gates, Mr Henderson, who was to accompany the Major to Spain, as private Secretary, died at Washington on Monday, of a disease contracted while in service with the troops in Florida.

In excellent taste.—The Philadelphia (U. S.) Gazette had the following paragraph on Monday—

"Sheeps Head—We are gratified to learn that a large supply of this delicious species of fish has been, by the liberal exertion of our fellow citizen, Col. D. Saint, procured expressly for the Harrison and Granger Celebration of this day, and will be served up in Madame Borquin's best style at the Arch Street Theatre."

We opine that there were sheeps' heads around, as well as upon, the table—they could not possibly be served up on a more appropriate occasion.

Tremont.—Playgoers must not forget that Mr Dowton takes a benefit and closes a most successful engagement this evening. His rich style of acting has gained him great popularity here, and his friends must show their hands in full force on his parting night. The bill is rich with attractions. It is also the last night of the season.

---

The down East papers are cautioning the public against "John H. Slack." If we had a dollar for every time we have read his name in the newspapers within three years, we should be the richest man in America—perhaps.

---

Mr Penrose, one of the apostate Pennsylvania Senators who voted for the Bank, has commenced suing editors for reflecting on his course—he had better sue his own stupidity, for getting him into such dirty company.

---

The Democratic Celebrations on the Fourth, as far as we have heard, went off well. We shall publish the accounts as fast as they come to hand—that for Plymouth County will be found on the First Page.

---

Accident.—Mr Ebenezer Delano, of Fairhaven, had his right hand so much torn and disabled by the premature discharge of a field piece on the Fourth, that amputation was necessary.

---

The Lowell Advertiser, the new tri-weekly paper established by Dearborn & Bellows, has come to hand. It is a well filled and well printed sheet, deserving, what we think it must command, success.

About Right.—The proprietors of Stationers' Hall, New York, gave a dinner to their employees, about 80 in number, on the 4th.

Petty Larcenies are getting to be uncomfortably common in the neighborhood of Northampton, says the Courier.

---

Robbery.—The store of Lorin Sexton, in Hartford, Ct., was entered on the night of the 3d inst., and robbed of a large amount of dry goods.

---

Minute Guns were fired on the Common yesterday, from 12 to 1 o'clock, in honor of the memory of Mr Madison, and by direction of Gov. Everett.

---

The Star states that Mr Coddington has been appointed Postmaster at New York, vice Mr Gouverneur.

---

An Irishman named Peter Smallen, was killed in New York on Sunday, in an affray.

The corner stone of the Pitts Street Chapel was laid yesterday morning at six o'clock.

POLICE COURT.

The Flynns and the Cassadys.—Mrs Nancy Cassady, a very pretty lady, was called upon to lead to a charge of assaulting with a pair of tongs, Mrs Mary Margaret Flynn, a very respectable looking middle aged dame.—Each party came to Court with a strong corps-du-reserve of witnesses, whom the Court, to prevent a pitched battle on the spot, ordered to be placed as far apart as the limits of the room would allow. Mrs Flynn, of course, swore that Mrs Cassady had beaten her "within an inch of her life, with the tongs, without nivver a bit of anny provercation at ahl at ahl, only jist bekaze she wint doon stairs to ask her for why she'd be thrawin stones at her bit uv a bye, that wouldn't be lifting a hand til a kitten, the swate crathure." The bit of a bye, in his testimony, followed his mother's footsteps with exemplary and filial fidelity, and also added that Mrs Cassady hit his dear mammy a wallop along the ribs, and then broke open the door. This was strong swearing, but Mrs Cassady kept her temper till it came to her turn to talk. She made it out as clear as preaching, that she did not use the tongs, till Mrs Flynn and her "bit uv a bye" made a combined assault on her—the mother working away on her head-works, and the boy cutting away at her shins with a stick. Lucky for Nancy, her battalion of witnesses supported her very efficiently. The case stood in equilibrio, and a single lie, or fact, would have tipped up one of the parties. In this crisis, Nancy called a constable to the stand, who put some bold touches on Mrs Flynn's reputation, as a railer and brawler, and reminded his Honor that she was the person who was pardoned for an assault on another woman, some time ago, out of pity, she having pleaded a sick husband in the hospital, and six children down with the measles, whereas in truth she had not one child so down, and but three at home. So Mrs Nancy Cassady was acquitted at once.

---

An ordinary Ann street affair.—Daniel Nelson, an Herculean Jack-tar, was up for an assault on William Lewis, in Ann street, on Wednesday night. As Mr Lewis and a companion left an oyster shop, they observed Nelson and three of his shipmates beating and kicking a single man, who was down. Lewis called watch, and one of the assailants of the prostrate man attacked him, and Nelson followed suit, knocked him down, kicked out one of his teeth, and loosened two others. The watch was again called, and Nelson, who was not disposed to retreat, was captured and caged. "What have you to say to this evidence, Nelson?" says his Honor. "I have nothing to say—only I arrived last night, and got some liquor on board, and hadn't my senses exactly—if I had had them I shouldn't have done what they say I have," replied Nelson. Fined $10.00 and costs.

John Corday—an uncommonly decent and fine looking man, with not a single impress of intemperance on his person—was brought up as a common drunkard by the watch. Day after day would he get absolutely drunk, and night after night would he make the sidewalk his couch, with a stone step for his pillow. A year ago he was very temperate; but the establishment in which he labored having been removed to the vicinity of a rum-trap, the fiend tempted and prevailed over him.—Four months in the house of correction.

In the Municipal Court, the young lad Benjamin Park was convicted of breaking into Cotton, Hill & Co.'s store, Central wharf, in the night time, and stealing therefrom a hone—the only thing that he could find. He was arrested in coming out, and, upon searching him, a piece of candle and other materials for obtaining a light were found upon him by the watch. The jury recommended Park to mercy on account of his youth. The Judge sasd he should, under existing circumstances, send him to the House of Reformation.

John Conner, keeper of a victualling house in Ann street, was convicted on two indictments, for assaults on Edward Fogg and John Shannon, sailors, with a pair of tongs. Conner's window had been broken by some disorderly persons, who had been put out, and when Fogg and Shannon came to the door, he probably supposed them to be the same individuals, and gave them battle with the tongs.—As he has laid in jail three weeks, he was only fined $20.00 on the first charge, and $10.00 on the second.

CONGRESS.

Monday, July 4.—In the Senate, Mr Davis, from the Committee on Commerce, reported a resolution requiring the Secretary of the Treasury to lay before the Senate, at its next session, such information as can be obtained, respecting the departation of paupers from Great Britain and other places, ascertaining, as far as possible, to what countries such persons are sent, where landed, and what provision, if any, is made for their future support. Adopted.

Mr Davis also submitted resolutions, which were adopted, requiring information from the Secretary of War, in relation to all improvements of harbors, rivers, &c. &c. undertaken by the United States.

The rules were so far suspended as to allow such bills as had been enrolled and had received the signatures of the presiding officers of the two Houses, to be sent to the President.

After some other unimportant business, and the interchange of the usual ceremonies with the House and President, the Senate, at half past 1 o'clock, adjourned.

The House concurred with the Senate in suspending the rules in relation to certain bills.

The Committee on Foreign Relations made a report on the subject of the recognition of the independence of Texas, concluding with resolutions, precisely similar in terms, to those adopted the other day by the Senate. They were adopted by a large majority, there being only about 20 negatives.

After some remarks by Mr Calhoun, of Ky., and by Mr Williams, in relation to the breach of order committed by the latter on Saturday morning, of an apologetic and explanatory character, the resolution of censure unanimously adopted by the House upon that occasion, was rescinded and rejected.

The House, at two o'clock, adjourned sine die.

BOSTON, JULY 4, 1836.—I will beg the pleasure of making some reply to the paragraph of Mr John Philips, in the Morning Post of Saturday and Monday. He commences by quoting scripture and saying that nations shall rise against nations, and kingdoms against kingdoms; he then expresses an admonition that we should beware of false prophets. I would appeal to that gentleman's own conscience if it is not more expedient that we should beware of those Judases who would willingly sacrifice their heavenly benefactor, with all their own happiness, honor and respect, and not only their own but their posterity and kindred, for the sake of thirty pieces of silver. The gentleman appears to be inveterate because there are those who would gladly break every yoke and let the oppressed go free, if it was in their power and consistent with the laws of the land; it is consistent with the laws of God, although many are unwilling to submit to it. The gentleman appears to be very much opposed to emancipation and to those who have hazarded their own lives to befriend the hapless suffering in a part of our nation. Now if this gentleman actually has such a refined taste as he expresses, as to prefer slavery to liberty, I think the gentleman may readily adopt a plan to elevate himself in the envi'le situation he speaks so much in favor of. Why not get some white friend to forward him on to Georgia with the understanding that if the gentleman will make sale of him he shall have half the money; then he can have the pleasure of being a slave and have plenty of money beside. This may be a great satisfaction to Mr Philips, and no particular disadvantage to those who are not quite so much reconciled to that peculiar situation that he recommends so highly.

FIRE WORKS.—M. HALL, Pyrotechnist of New York, respectfully announces to the public of Boston, that he was in no way connected with the manufacture or preparation of the Fire Works displayed on Boston Common on Tuesday evening, the 5th of July, and he disclaims any connection whatever with the person who did manufacture them. While he feels it necessary to give this public notice in justice to his own reputation, he begs to state it would afford him great pleasure to amuse the inhabitants of Boston, some fine evening, with a REAL DISPLAY of Fire Works, composed of something more than an immense flourish of high sounding names and smoke. 3tis jy8

LONDON PERFUMERY.—The following articles are well known:—

ATKINSON'S OLD BROWN WINDSOR SOAP, made by a new process, is equal, if not superior, to the most fashionable Soap, sold at double the price.

ATKINSON'S ALMOND SOAP, made from the purest Almond Oil the mildest Soap, most fragrant in its perfume, and greatest beautifier to the skin hitherto known.

Also, his OTTO OF ROSE. CAMPHOR for chapped hands.

AMBROSIAL SOAP. It is made from the purest vegetable oil, and is equally mild as the Almond, only differing from it in perfume and colour, the latter being a light brown, and the perfume a combination of those most generally approved.

ATKINSON'S BEARS' GREASE, warranted genuine as imported. This article, exclusive of its well known regenerating properties, is a very elegant substitute for Oils, Pomatums, and Extracts, for dressing the hair.

CREAM OF ALMONDS. For allaying all smarting pain, which the skin is subject to from the change of heat and cold, or any other cause, and is much preferable to Cold Cream.

ATKINSON'S VEGETABLE DYE, for changing grey or red hair on the head or whiskers, to a permanent brown or black.

CAUTION.—Every article in perfumery of James Atkinson's manufactory, has his name and address distinct on the label, and also a small address stamp, printed in colors, similar to a patent medicine stamp.

ALLA AD DEEN MAHOMED'S DYE, for changing the hair on the head, eyebrows, or whiskers, to a permanent brown or black, by one application, without staining the skin or the finest linen.

A fresh supply of the above just received by J. & E. Atkinson's Agent, at the Music Saloon, and London Importing Warehouse, No 34 and 36 Cornhill, late Market street.

LAFAYETTE HOTEL,
Washington street, Boston.

The subscriber takes pleasure in acquainting his friends and the public generally, that this establishment has been greatly enlarged and otherwise improved, and will be open on and after the 4th July, for the reception of company. The addition of several elegant parlors, with chambers adjoining, and a large number of handsomely furnished lodging rooms, will render the house particularly inviting to families and individuals travelling by the railroads, whose depots are in the vicinity. Every effort will be made, personally, and through well tried assistants, to retain old friends, and, if possible, to please them who patronize the Lafayette for the first time.

☞ Large and commodious stables are attached, for the convenience of those who journey in their own private vehicles.

MOUNT WASHINGTON HOUSE.

The Subscriber, who formerly kept the United States' Hotel, and lately the Pavilion at Saratoga, would respectfully inform the Public that he has taken charge of the new and splendid House (recently erected on the memorable Heights at South Boston) called the Mount Washington House, and that he will be ready on the 11th instant, in the afternoon, and every succeeding afternoon during the week, to attend to Gentlemen who may wish to select rooms, and on Monday the 18th inst. be prepared for the reception of company.

The location of the House, for beauty and variety of prospect and purity of air, is not surpassed by any in this vicinity, it commands an entire view of the Harbor, City and surrounding country, and though but within a few minutes ride or walk of the centre of the City, possesses all the retirement of an inland village.

The internal arrangements of the House are calculated to be of the first order, and every exertion will be used to give satisfaction to its inmates. The House contains about two hundred rooms, has spacious piazzas, a fine promenade on the top, is built in the most thorough manner, and no expense has been spared to render it a safe, convenient and agreeable place of residence. The west wing is particularly appropriated for Ladies and Gentlemen with their families.

There is connected with the House spacious and convenient Bathing Rooms. There is also attached to the establishment a large Stable, capable of accommodating 150 horses, and the facility of several omnibusses which will arrive and leave every half hour, and be in readiness to convey passengers to and from the different Railroad depots, Steamboats, and business part of the City.

HIGHLY ELIGIBLE MANUFACTURING LOCATION.—The Managers of the Trenton Delaware Falls Company have the pleasure to announce to the manufacturers of the United States, that their works are now on the eve of completion, and that they are ready to furnish water power for propelling any kind of machinery.

Although the water has but recently been introduced into the race-way, seven mills of different kinds are now in operation upon it.

The Company derive their supply of water from the river Delaware, taking it therefrom by means of a canal or main race way, about five miles above the city of Trenton, and conduct it thus along the river to the village of Lamberton, three fourths of a mile below the city, and upon the navigable tide water of the river.

The race way is 60 feet wide at the top water line, 6 feet deep, and at the lowest stage of the river known, supplies a column of water equal to 23,868 cubic feet per minute. The fall at the Assanpink is 14 feet, and at the company's sites is 18¼ feet. This volume of water may be doubled when desired.

The charge for the water is $3 per square inch per annum, above the Assanpink, where the head and fall is 14 feet, and $4 below the Assanpink, where the head and fall is 18¼ feet at medium tides. The above prices are upon the hypothesis that the water is drawn under a three feet head—if drawn under a less head the price is proportionably less, according to the tables of calculation in the office of the company.

A number of valuable mill sites, along the line of the race way, owned by individuals, are now in the market. In addition to these, the company possess about 20 most eligible situations. These, it is their determination to dispose of, by sale or rent, on the most favorable terms, having procured them with that view. They have also about 200 building lots, which they design for the accommodation of the mills, on terms equally advantageous with those for the mill sites.

In addition to the above, the company contemplate in a short time, to build the shells of mills, upon favorable terms, to be agreed on, on plans to be presented to them, and these to rent with the water to manufacturers who will fill them with machinery.

They are now ready to receive proposals for leasing or selling sites—letting water—and erecting mills as above—and they invite the attention of the manufacturing community to their work.

The location of no manufacturing place could be more advantageous. In facilities of every description, Trenton far exceeds most manufacturing towns in the country. Situated between New York and Philadelphia, with a direct water communication with both cities—within two hours ride, by the Pennsylvania Railroad, of Philadelphia; and within four hours ride of New York, by the Straight Railroad, about to be constructed—lying on a noble river, navigable almost to the very doors of the mills, and penetrating a vast lumber and rich mineral and agricultural country for 150 miles above Trenton; the location is supplied on every hand with the most available means of communicating with a choice of markets, and of a certain and cheap conveyance of the raw materials to the mills. If cotton mills are established, the bales of cotton can be shipped at New Orleans and unladen at the company's wharves, without any intermediate labor or expense. If iron foundries are erected, an abundance of ore and coal may be had via the river Delaware and the Morris Canal from the Sussex and Morris iron, and Pensylvania coal mines. If merchant mills are put up, they will have the whole grain region of the valley of the Delaware to supply them. If saw mills, the hundreds of rafts of logs which every spring and fall descend the river, would be at their command. Indeed, as an abundant supply of the raw material, and a ready access to the best markets, are the great desiderata of all the various branches of manufactures, there is not one of them which could find a more eligible location in the Union than exists here.

Communications addressed to the subscriber will receive immediate attention.

PHILEMON DICKINSON, President.*
Trenton, N. J. June 14, 1836.

A three story brick building, covered with slate, 120 feet by 46, containing two water wheels, equal to 40 horse power; Machine Shop filled with lathes, &c; Pattern Shop; Rolling Mill, and Furnaces, capable of rolling 4 tons of iron per diem, exclusive of other work; three Trip Hammers, one of which is very large; Engine for blowing Cupola Furnaces, moved by a water wheel; one very superior 12 horse Steam Engine, which could be dispensed with; and a variety of other machinery.

No. 5. An Iron Foundry, 80 feet by 45, with a superior air Furnace and two Cupolas, Core Oven, Cranes, &c. fitted for the largest work. Attached to the Foundry is a large warehouse, containing Patterns for the Castings of Hydraulic Presses, Locomotive and other Steam Engines, Lead Mill Rolls, Gearing, Shafts, Stoves, Grates, &c. &c. These were made of the most durable materials, under the direction of a very scientific and practical Engineer, and are supposed to be of great value.

No. 6. A building 65 feet by 36, containing a large stock of chimnies and furnaces for making Cast Steel. This building has been used as a boarding house, and can accommodate a large number of men.

No. 7. A range of buildings 200 feet long by 20, containing counting room, several store rooms, a Brass Foundry, room for cleaning castings, a large loft for storing patterns, stable for two horses, &c. &c

The above establishment being on tide water, presents greater advantages for some kinds of business than any other in the United States. Coal and Iron can be carried from vessels in the harbor of Boston, to the wharf in front of the Factory, at 25 to 30 cents per ton. Some of the largest jobs of iron work have been completed at this establishment; among others the great chain and lift pumps for freeing the Dry Dock at the Navy Yard, Charlestown.

The situation for Railroad work is excellent, being in the angle formed by the crossing of the Providence and Worcester Railroads. The Locomotive "Yankee," now running on the latter road, and the "Boston," purchased by the State of Pennsylvania, were built at these works. With the patterns and Machinery, now in the premises, 20 Locomotives and as many tenders, besides a great quantity of cars and wagons, could be made per annum.

For terms, apply to GERARD RALSTON, Tremont House, until the 10th inst.; to THOMAS J. ECKLEY, Boston; or to ROBERT RALSTON, jr. Philadelphia.

TO ARCHITECTS.—The Trustees of the Albany Exchange Company are about to erect a building in the city of Albany, in which they propose to have an Exchange Room, the floor to occupy 2500 square feet, to be lighted by a dome; three or four banking rooms, with vaults and director's rooms, post office, insurance offices, stores, offices, &c.

A plan of the ground is to be seen at Brigg's Reading Room, Wilson's Lane, Boston.

The great business streets are Market and State streets.

It is intended to have a high basement, sub-basement, and 2d and 3d stories. The cost of the building not to exceed $130,000. The Trustees offer a premium of $250 for the best plan to be approved of by them; for the four next best plans $25 each. Plans to be sent in by the 1st of August next.

Itch!

HOWEVER inveterate, in one hour's application, and no danger from taking cold, by using DUMFRIES' ITCH OINTMENT.
This preparation for pleasantness, safety, expedition, ease and certainty, stands unrivalled for the cure of this troublesome complaint. It is so rapid as well as certain in its operation, as to cure this disagreeable disorder most effectually in one hour's application only!
It does not contain the least particle of mercury, or other dangerous ingredient, and may be applied with perfect safety by pregnant females, or to children at the breast.
Price 37½ cents a box, with ample directions.

Syphilitic Complaints.

FOR the infallible cure of all the stages of the Syphilitic Disease, from a slight infection, to the most virulent stage of the disorder, even when attended with Headache, Pain in the Bones, Blotches, Sore Throat, Enlargement of the Skin and Skull Bones, Loss of Appetite, and Universal Debility &c.

DR. HUNTER'S PILLS AND INJECTION POWDERS,
Witness the following cases of cures:
☞ A Gentleman in Thomaston, was many years afflicted (thought incurable) with ulcers in his throat, pain in his limbs loss of appetite, universal debility, and otherwise diseased; his life dispaired of, was restored to perfect health and spirits by a few boxes of these Pills.
☞ A Seafaring man, suffered so severely from this complain for two years, as to be often deprived of his rest, had pains in his limbs, sore throat, headache, enlargement of the glands of the neck, scull bone affected, a bad cough, no appetite, entirely debilitated, and considered as past relief, having tried other medicines in vain, was cured, and restored to perfect health, by a few boxes of these Pills!
☞ A young man, was recently entirely cured from a bad stage of the complaint, by using the above medicine (to less than $3 value,) after receiving the advice of several physicians, and using various celebrated medicines.
☞ An invaluable property! "I feel myself (writes a person, after using these Pills,) thoroughly cured, and believe this invaluable medicine has completely eradicated the complaint from my system; a property which I think this remedy possesses beyond any other with which I am acquainted, and is a desideratum in my view, which renders it above all price."
☞ A treatise explaining the various symptoms, with full directions, (so that persons of either sex can cure themselves) encircle each box.
 Price of the Pills $1 a box—the Injection Powders and Cerate, 50 cents.
☞ Prepared from the original Recipe in MS. of the late Dr W. T. Conway, by his immediate successor and the sole proprietor, T. KIDDER, of whom they may be had at his Counting Room, over No 99 Court street, corner of Hanover street, and also by his appointment of the Druggists generally Boston and vicinity. s23

FRAMPTON'S PILL OF HEALTH—Or FAMILY RESTORATIVE—for both sexes.
Habitual Costiveness and Irregularities of the Bowels—one, two, or three to be taken at bedtime—to be repeated as occasion may require
Bilious and Liver Complaints, Jaundice, Sallowness of the Complexion, Drowsiness, Languor, Flatulency, Headache Loss of Appetite, Wind and Spasms—two or three pills taken every night will speedily remove the complaint.
After too free an indulgence in the pleasures of the table, two or three pills may be taken as soon as convenient—this will prevent any unpleasantness, and render the system cool and comfortable.
Pimples in the Face, Blotches, Eruptions of the Skin, &c—two pills to be taken every other night—to be continued till the complaint is removed.
Female Complaints—Obstructions, the distressing Headache so prevalent with the Sex, Depression of Spirits, Dimness of Sight, Nervous Affections, Sallowness of the Skin, &c—one, two, or three pills, according to the strength of the patient, to be taken at bedtime, and continued as occasion may require.
Elderly People will find essential benefit in an occasional dose, as they give tone and strength to the stomach, and prevent any noxious accumulations.
Children—for children they can be bruised down, and given with honey, jelly, sugar, &c.
As a general direction for almost any deviation from health, or for sudden illness, one, two or 3 pills will be found to answer the purpose, either for a mild or brisk purgative, according to the constitution of the patient—while a little perseverance in their use, with moderate exercise, cannot fail to produce the happiest results.
The best time for taking them is at night—but they may also be used at any time of the day in urgent cases, and where the head or stomach is disordered.
For sale, by appointment of the proprietor, Thomas Prout No 229 Strand, London, by the agent of the celebrated Blair's Gout and Rheumatic Pills, at the Saloon and London Importing warehouse, No 36 Cornhill, formerly Market st. a19

DR. PHELPS' ARCANUM.—This Syrup is celebrated for the Cure of Scrofula, Eruptions or Diseases of the skin, Syphilis or Venereal Complaints, Rheumatism, Ulcers in the Throat and other parts of the Body, Mercurial Affections, Liver Complaints, Diseases of the Blood, Deep seated pains in the Muscles, Bones, &c. and a regenerator of emaciated and broken Constitutions, caused by disease, intemperance, &c.
RECOMMENDATIONS.
Having been made acquainted with the medical qualities and witnessed the effects of "Dr Phelps' Arcanum," I feel much confidence in saying it is a preparation of medicine greatly superior to any thing of the kind, in curing those chronic diseases for which it is intended, and recommend it to invalids in preference to any other article whatever.
SAMUEL L. MITCHELL, M. D.
New York, March 25, 1830.
My knowledge of the properties and operation of the "Arcanum of Dr Phelps," justify me in saying that it is far superior to any depurative syrup with which I am acquainted. In the most obstinate and ambiguous diseases, it displays effects peculiarly surprising. In those affections that resist the skill of the physician, such as Rheumatism, Syphilis, Scrofula, Ulcerations, and Diseases of the Skin, &c., I would recommend it as worthy of great confidence. JOHN D. GODMAN, M. D.
Philadelphia Nov 27, 1829.
For the last few years I have suffered excessively by a Bilious Mercurial Disease, which has rendered me frequently unfit for duty, and confined me as often to my berth. My disease was the sequela of bad treatment, while in the more tropical latitudes, and laboring under an acute inflamation of the liver, and other Billiary organs Prior and subsequently to our arrival in this port, I have had recourse to a great variety of prescriptions, medicines and nostrums—among which, were a number of bottles of Swaim's Panacea, Potter's Catholicon, the Rob of Laffecteur, &c., but without any benefit.—Dr Phelps being at that time a student of medicine in the University of Pennsylvania, advised me to make use of a newly discovered medicine, the Arcanum, which he believed would succeed in relieving me, in consequence of the very signal effects himself and others had observed in its operation in various glandular diseases, that were otherwise considered incurable. I commenced its use accordingly, and it affords me pleasure to state, that for several months past, not a vestige of the original or secondary disease has been discoverable. I prize the medicine above all others with which I have ever been acquainted. It is both pleasant and I believe certain in its effects, as a remedy in a variety of chronic diseases, incident to tropical and other climates. J. ANDREWS, Purser of the Columbian Brig Pinchinca. Philadelphia, Jan. 5, 1835.
SAVANNAH, 6th March, 1831.
GENT.—I cannot refrain from expressing my gratitude to you in offering me a bottle of Dr PHELPS' ARCANUM, as an experiment in my case of Rheumatism. I have been dreadfully afflicted for upwards of twelve months and for the last four or five months have scarcely been able to walk. I have used a dozen bottles of Swaim's Panacea, and found very little benefit from it. After taking the bottle of Arcanum, I found such a change in my whole system, that I was induced to try another, and to my surprise, the pains in my legs all disappeared, and the Ulcers in one have completely healed up, and I can walk nearly as well as ever. I shall continue to take two bottles more, and firmly believe it will make a complete cure of my disease. I remain, gentlemen, yours very respectfully,
JNO. MORRALL
Messrs Lay & Hendrickson, Druggists, Savannah, (Geo.)
Extract of a letter from Dr Jones, a highly respectable physician, dated Baton Rogue, Louisiana, Dec. 28, 1833.—The Arcanum had two powerful competitors, Swaim's Panacea, and Potter's Catholicon, which have been for years in circulation in this place. As far as I have had an opportunity of ascertaining its virtues, I believe the Arcanum to be superior to any article of the kind, yet offered to the public. I prescribed it in a case of Irritable Ulcer of three years standing, situated on the Malleolus Extrenus—the individual thus afflicted was much emaciated and debilitated,—after one week's attendance, I put him upon the Arcanum, following the directions three bottles nearly effected a cure of the ulcer and bodily health.
I prescribed it in several Mercurial and Syphilitic Affections, where it proved salutary. I am at this time trying the Arcanum on an individual, who has been laboring under Ulcerous affections of one of his legs, for fifteen years,—he has taken 1 bottle only, and it has produced that effect, he is sanguine in the belief, it will effect a permanent cure.

ADAMS'S PATENT

THE subscriber has on hand a good assortment of the Swelled Beam Windlass Bedsteads, which, for comfort and convenience is undoubtedly the best article yet invented; its chief peculiarity is that of the Swelled Beam, the effect of which is to produce a crowning, and elastic sacking, and effectually provides against its saging. They are easily set up or taken down, and may be saved in case of fire as easily as any other piece of furniture, and from its mode of construction less liable to harbor insects than any ether kind; but above all its advantages is the ease and comfort obtained from the sacking, by means of its being made and kept elastic by means of the Swelled Beam, (the form of which is exhibited in the above cut.)

INDIGESTION, JAUNDICE AND BILIOUS COMPLAINTS. ANDERSON'S VEGETABLE ELIXIR, for Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Jaundice and Bilious Complaints, weakness of the Stomach and Bowels, and consequent loss of appetite; nervous complaints, headach, sour stomach, flatulence and habitual costiveness.
This medicine is composed entirely of vegetable substances is perfectly safe in its operation, and may be given to children or persons of the most delicate habit, without the least risk of inconvenience.
The uniform success which has attended the use of it where it has been extensively used, in Boston and various other parts of the United States, and in the West Indies, attested by disinterested and highly respectable persons, affords, next to a trial of the medicine itself, the best commentary upon its virtues and the best recommendation which can be offered to those who are unacquainted with it.
Extract of a letter received from a gentleman in Boston, who had suffered severely from indigestion for three years. 'During this time, I suffered very much from mental depression, constant pain in the head and breast, and side, sharp shooting pain over almost the whole system—the food that I ate seemed to pass into my lungs and there remain, giving me great pain as tended with a strong degree of heat. At times, I suffered so much from the pain of indigestion as to be confined to the bed for two or three days. During one of these most severe attacks I was induced by the advice of a friend to try your Vegetable Medicine. In the course of a few weeks I found myself much better, and by the time I had taken two bottles, considered myself wholly free from the complaint. I continue, on the least feeling of any thing like indigestion or pressure on the stomach, to take about a table spoonful of it, which, in the course of a few hours completely restores me. It has had with me a very wonderful effect, in strengthening the stomach and invigorating the whole system, and judging by my own case, I consider it in all diseases connected with the digestive organs, to be a very valuable medicine.
It has been found singularly efficacious in cases of the most obstinate headache.
It is put up in large bottles containing a pound and a half and sold at seventy-five cents each, by Jonathan P. Hall, Jr. No. 1, Union street, John P. Whitwell, Milk street, John I. Brown, near Boylston Market, Erastus S. Holden, near the Western Avenue, Richard A. Newell, Summer street, Boston, Samuel Kidder & Co. Charlestown, E. G. Lemon, Roxbury.

BENJAMIN LORING & CO. 122 State street, have just received by the Cameo, from London, a new article of the Steel Pen, manufactured by Perryian, the original inventor of this most wonderful improvement.
Patent Perryian Regulating Flat Spring Pen.—The flexibility given to this pen by the flat spring is superior to that found in the best quill, it may be made harder or softer, by placing the pen higher or lower in the holder; will write on any sort of paper with the greatest freedom, and never fatigues the hand.
Patent Perryian Regulating Spring Pen.—The novel invention, by means of the regulating spring, commands all the ease and freedom of the best quill; it may also be made harder or softer, to suit the hand or taste of the writer, by simply moving the spring higher or lower, according to the degree of flexibility required.
Patent Perryian Elastic Pen Holder, with appropriate Pens.—The novel construction of the elastic holder, confers in the Pen unequalled advantages, by imparting an agreeable softness and flexibility, rendering it so perfectly unrestrained in its action, that it never fatigues the hand, and enables it to pass over any description of paper with ease and expedition.
Patent Perryian India Rubber Spring Pen.—This novel application of Caoutchoue effects an extraordinary elasticity in the patent pen, and its advantages over the quill must be universally acknowledged.
Patent Perryian Fountain Pen.—Warranted to write more than fifty lines with one dip of ink.
Double Patent Perryian Pen with patent elastic holder.—This instrument has obtained for the inventor two Patents from His Brittanic Majesty, and also two patents from His Majesty the King of the French, and is used in more than forty government offices.
☞ B. L. & Co. have also on hand twenty other kinds of patent pens, direct from the manufacturers.
